

From Lynne and Sam Unglo – Wedding Reception – Dec. 29, 2001

Hi, Chuck.

Lynne and I enjoyed our wedding night, and the music was perfect. You did an excellent job introducing the wedding party, facilitating the flow of the evening, picking the music and reading the crowd. Those Unglo boys can dance and dance, and the rest of the crowd knew how to party, too. When the opening song was "Living on a Prayer," and the following song was "Vogue," I knew that it was going to be a night!

Great job, Chuck! Lynne and I will definitely recommend you to our friends and family, and please feel free to use us as references. Also, Lynne, as she wraps things up with the Marietta Conference Center, will try to get you on their preferred list of vendors.

As for the morning after, Lynne and I made it down to breakfast at 9:15 AM, just a little bit past 7:05 AM :)

Happy New Year, Chuck! Thanks for helping to make our special day fantastic!

All the best,
Sam & Lynne
